Mr. Alfred Friendly
The Washington POST
15th & L Streets, NW
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Friendly:

No, you are not the wrong person to whom to address this. It is for your information because the POST will not use it.

The situation is rapidly developing as I predicted it would.

While the POST has nominated itself for the "Look Back with Regret" award of the year, there appears to be nothing I can do about it except to inform you and that I will do.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
